December 2012

Wow, that went by fast! My term as Worshipful Master, I mean. We accomplished a lot together this year. Ten degree conferrals, 2 of which were MMs, not counting the ones we did for other Lodges or provided major assistance for. A serious start on what should be the first major update of our by-laws in 80 years. Highway cleanup. Family picnic. Appendant Bodies Night. Masonic Education. Major participation in two district schools of instruction. A night at Concerts on the Square. Great food from our Stewards. A new fund-raising event. And our immediate Past District Deputy commented that we are the youngest Lodge, by age of active participants, in the District. In addition, we are seen as the go-to Lodge in our District and beyond for providing assistance when other Lodges need help conferring degrees. What was the best part? These things weren't accomplished by me as the WM, or by a few individuals. We did these things, as we should, by group effort, by everyone contributing their own talents and expertise. So many of you took the initiative to start new things and just generally do what needed to be done. And for that, I thank you. Oh, there's more to do, surely, and you'll be seeing new ideas from your new WM, Jim Carlson. Bro. Jim is taking over an active Lodge that will continue to be a force for good in the Wausau area community. Thank you, all of you, for your help and support in 2012 and for being a Lodge I am proud to serve.

I'll be seeing you in Lodge!

Yours truly in Peace and Harmony,
Dan Maguire, WM
