Master's Message

Brothers, as we prepare to start back up this fall, instead of a short topic of Masonic thought, I would like to share my idea for an event I would like to hold this fall.

Some Masters have Past Master's nights, I would like to have a Masonic Veterans Night. These Brothers truly have put the betterment of their fellow Americans, and often that of foreigners alike, before their own safety and needs.

The details of the event we will work out in lodge in the coming months. However, the basics I know already. I want to thank our living Masonic veterans and remember those who have past on to the GAotU. I would like this event to be open to our ladies, the brothers of other lodges (and their ladies) and the widows of the Lodge. Also, I would like to have food and fellowship to round it off.

If brothers know of Masonic veterans that are no longer with us, whether they are members of Forest Lodge or another, and would like them included, please contact me at stephen.britton@gmail.com or 203-258-6987. I have two names already; Bro Frank Booth (JW Barlow's grandfather) and Bro. John Britton (my father).
