Custom Canines Service Dog Academy (CCSDA)

Mrs. Gloria Helmbrecht, the Director of Development of an organization called “Custom Canines Service Dog Academy”, visited the Lodge and delivered a presentation. The organization raises and trains service dogs and placed with families free of charge. The organization depends on volunteers, donors, and supporters to provide care and training for the dogs with emphasis on assisting people with disabilities that include autism, mobility, and PTSD, particularly military veterans who rely on special services and emotional needs. Following the presentation various questions were tendered on Mrs. Helmbrecht which were addressed. Mrs. Helmbrecht indicated that any assistance offered would be appreciated and could be delivered via the details included on the following business card.
